Students names cannot be posted on the internet unless you receive parental permission to do so. You may use the following form to receive parental permission or your school may choose to create their own form. When you enter the names of your students, the computer will automatically hide the actual names. The only way the real names will become published is if you put a check in the box next to the student's name that says "Show Name Publicly".

SCORE RELEASE FORM

To whom it may concern:

I_____, the guardian of _____, grant you permission to post his/her name and score he/she received in the Mathfax competition located at www.educontest.com and www.catholicmathleague.com.

Guardian's signature_____ Date_____

SCORE RELEASE FORM

To whom it may concern:

I_____, the guardian of _____, grant you permission to post his/her name and score he/she received in the Mathfax competition located at www.educontest.com and www.catholicmathleague.com.

Guardian's signature_____ Date_____